

The map displays the geographical distribution of the 90.7 MHz radio frequency in the Radom region. The coverage area is marked by a green cross-hatched pattern. Key locations within the coverage area include Radom, Włocławek, and various surrounding towns. The frequency name 'Radom 90.7 MHz' is prominently displayed in red text within the green area. The map also shows the surrounding landscape, including rivers and other geographical features.